New Delhi, the 5th August 1965

THE CENTRAL SECRETARIAT SERVICE ASSISTANTS’ GRADE (COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION) REGULATIONS, 1965

G.S.R. 1151.—In pursuance of sub-rule (9) of rule 13 of the Central Secretariat Service Rules, 1962 and in supersession of the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs No. 25/4/63-(ii)-CS(A), dated the 9th March 1964, the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, hereby makes the following regulations, namely;

1. (1) Short title.—These regulations may be called the Central Secretariat Service Assistants’ Grade (Competitive Examination) Regulations, 1965.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official Gazette.

2. Definition.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “available vacancies” means such vacancies in the Assistants’ Grade of the Service as are required to be filled on the results of an examination;

(b) “examination” means a competitive examination held by the Commission for direct recruitment to the Assistants’ Grade of the Service and to posts of Assistants in such Services, departments or offices, as may be notified from time to time by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs; and

(c) “Schedule Castes” and “Scheduled Tribes” shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them by clauses (24) and (25) respectively of article 366 of the Constitution of India;

(2) All other words and expressions used in these regulations and not defined herein shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Central Secretariat Service Rules, 1962.

3. Holding of the examination.—(1) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified from time to time by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs

(2) The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.

4. Conditions of eligibility.—In order to be eligible to compete at the examination, a candidate must satisfy the following conditions, namely—

(i) Nationality—

(a) He must be a citizen of India, or

(b) He must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs.

(ii) Age—

He must have attained the age of 20 years, and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held:

Provided that the upper age-limit may be relaxed in respect of such categories of persons as may, from time to time be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, to the extent notified in respect, of each category.

(iii) Educational Qualifications—

He must hold a degree of a University established or incorporated by or under a Central Act, a Provincial Act or a State Act, or otherwise possess any qualification recognised by the Central Government as equivalent thereto:

Provided that—

(a) in exceptional cases, a candidate who, though not possessing any of the qualifications specified in this clause, may be treated by the Commission as qualified if he has passed such examinations conducted by any institution as are, in the opinion of the Commission, of a standard sufficient to justify his admission to the examination; and

(b) candidates who are otherwise qualified but have taken degrees from foreign Universities may also be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

(iv) Attempts at the examination—

Unless covered by any of the exceptions notified by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time, he should not already have competed more than once at the examinations held after the 1st January, 1962.

(v) Fees—

Subject to such exemptions or concessions or both, as may be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time, he shall pay the fees specified by the Commission.

5. Canvassing of candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission in their discretion to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination shall be arranged in the order of merit and subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 8, they shall be recommended for appointment in that order upto the number of appointments required to be made.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion, and the Commission shall not enter into any correspondence with the individual candidates regarding the results.

8. Appointments.—(1) Success at the examination shall confer no right to appointment to the Assistants' Grade of the Service unless the Central Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to public service.

(2) No candidate shall be appointed to the Assistants' Grade of the Service unless he is, after such medical examination as the Central Government may prescribe, found to be free from any mental or physical defect which is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

(3) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, and no woman whose marriage is void by reason of her husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for any appointment on the results of the examination:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-regulation.

(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, appointments to the Assistants' Grade of the Service on the results of any examination shall be made to the extent of the available vacancies, in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission for appointment, subject to reservations for members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the orders issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Candidates belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes who are considered by the Commission in their discretion to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination with due regard to the maintenance of the efficiency of administration shall be eligible to be appointed to the vacancies reserved for them irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit at the examination.

9. Penalty for impersonation or other misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents WHICH HAVE BEEN TAMPERED WITH or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period—

(i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or from appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Central Government from employment under that Government;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under Government.

Provided further that out of the total number of permanent vacancies in any of the Class III or Class IV posts specified in the Schedule to be filled by direct recruitment in a year, not more than one third may be filled by transfer from amongst the employees of the State Governments concerned in accordance with the general instructions issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and

(b) no woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.
